

Notes of Happenings In the Women's Clubs

Princes Cantacuzene-Speransky in Address at Women's City Club Tells Her Personal Experiences in Russia During the Last Three Years

The Committee on Literature and Art of the Colony Club will give a musical program Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the clubhouse, 564 Park Avenue.

Harry Ros, pianist, and Robert Velton, violinist, will give the program. Mr. Ros is a Cuban sent here by his government to study and Mr. Velton is a pupil of Kneis. Miss Mary Anderson, chief of the Women's Bureau of the Department of Labor, will address the club.

Mrs. Maud Wood Park, congressional chairman of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, gave the last of a series of addresses to the colony club on "What Congress is Doing Now," last Thursday.

"Russia" was the subject of an address given yesterday at the Women's City Club, 22 Park Avenue, by Princess Cantacuzene-Speransky. She gave her personal experiences and knowledge of conditions during the last three years.

A Near East program will be given at the Women's City Club next Thursday. Captain George B. Hyde, M. D., will speak on "Our Neighbors in the Near East." In 1918, Captain Hyde served under the American Red Cross in Germany, Belgium and France, and then went to the Near East to take charge of relief work in Aintab, Turkey. He has just returned from Armenia and the Washington representative of the American committee for Armenian independence.

"How to Save Mexico Without Bloodshed" will be the topic of the fourth lecture to-morrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock of the 1920 series given by the New York and New Jersey section, woman's department of the National Civic Federation, at the Cosmopolitan Club, 135 East Fortieth Street.

The speaker will be Miss Agnes Laut, Canadian writer and traveler. Miss Laut is known by her canoe trip through the Canadian Northwest to Hudson Bay, and by her camping experience in the passes of the Rocky Mountains in the years before the building of railroads in that region. Subsequently Miss Laut spent several years in the southwestern United States and on the Mexican border. She returned recently from Mexico where she made a study of present economic and social conditions. Tickets for non-members can be obtained at the offices at 105 West Fortieth Street.

Mrs. Howard S. Gans, president of the Federation for Child Study, will hold a reception at her home on Monday afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock. This is the first time since Mrs. Gans's return from abroad that she has opened her home to the entire Federation. Mrs. Gans has arranged a musical program. Plans for reorganization and development of the Federation activities will be discussed.

The Society of Michigan Daughters, Mrs. T. G. Massey, president, gave a benefit card party for the Serbian Relief Tuesday at the Waldorf-Astoria. Mrs. Arnold Marson, daughter of Bishop Hurley, gave an appealing description of her work in Serbia and told of the need for American help for the thousands of destitute children.

The Dixie Club of New York, Mrs. Edwin Wright Inslee, president, will give a card party and tea February 20, at the residence of Mrs. F. N. Meyer, 323 West 101st Street. The committee in charge is Mrs. Lucien Edmund LeFevre, chairman, 44 Linden Avenue, Brooklyn; Mrs. Joseph Lopez, 39 West Fifty-fifth Street, and Mrs. A. J. Van Exem, 127 West Eighty-second Street. Tickets may be had of the committee or at the regular meeting of the Dixie Club on Thursday, at Hotel Astor.

Life as a Fine Art Club, Mrs. Mildred Manly Easton, founder and president, will have its next meeting March 10. The February meeting was not held on account of the severe weather conditions and in order to compensate the efforts made to prevent the spread of influenza.

The Manhattan Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Mrs. Carrie Bidley Horrocks, regent, will hold its annual patriotic service on February 22, at St. Stephen's Protestant Episcopal Church, Broadway and Sixty-ninth Street, at 4 o'clock. Col-

Children To Be Helped By Society Theatricals

"The Importance of Being Earnest" To Be Repeated Tuesday Afternoon

Children will benefit from the second performance of "The Importance of Being Earnest," which will be given by women of society Tuesday afternoon at the Longacre Theater. The Sea Cliff Home for Convalescent Babies, of which Mrs. Charles Steele is the acting head, and the Fresh Air Fund of the Church of the Heavenly Rest will divide the proceeds.

The play, when given on February 1 for two other charities, netted a goodly sum, and it is hoped to duplicate the success of that first performance, which was so well received. Mrs. James Lowell Putnam, Mrs. Joseph Thomas, Mrs. Newell W. Tilton and Miss Eliza Maxwell will appear again with the actors who aided in the previous performance—Ernest Glendinning, T. Wigney Percival, Reginald Mason and Eric Snowden.

"The Ninth Waltz" again will be given as a curtain raiser, with Mrs. Herbert Shipman and Norman Trevor. Last year "Toby's Bow" was given by Mr. Trevor for the benefit of the Church of the Heavenly Rest's charity for children. Mrs. Shipman is in charge of the sale of tickets, which may be obtained at the parish house, 3 East Forty-fifth Street, or at the Longacre Theater. The prices of the seats are from $1 to $5.

Miss Marjorie Tiffany heads the program committee, which includes Miss Genevieve Glendinning, Miss Elsie Everitt, Mrs. John Wanamaker Jr., Mrs. Rawson Wood, Mrs. Anthony Biddle, Mrs. David Coddington, Mrs. Craig Biddle, Mrs. Edward Coddington, Mrs. Angier Duke and many other well known young women of society.

"Musical Milestones" Cast Begins Rehearsals

Rehearsals for the Junior League entertainment, "Musical Milestones," which will be given at the Waldorf-Astoria, for three nights, beginning March 2, have begun under the direction of Miss Grace Henry. The chairman of the committee this year is Miss Mary J. Schieffelin; Miss Ruth Manierre, is the secretary and Miss Louise Mittels are in charge of members of the league.

onel W. A. McIntyre, provincial officer of the Salvation Army, will address the chapter at the monthly meeting, February 26, at the Hotel McAlpin.

Chiropean, of which Miss Julia F. Ring is president, will hold its twenty-fourth anniversary breakfast Thursday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock. The topic will be "To-day," and the speakers will be Sherman Rogers, Mrs. Frederic Norris, Amelia Gray Clarke and Walter Mills.

The committee on literature and art of the Chiropean held a meeting Friday, of which Mrs. Frank Homer Thompson was chairman. The topic was "Leonard Merrick and His Works."

Dr. Felix Adler will deliver a lecture Friday afternoon at 8:45 o'clock before the Federation for Child Study at the meeting house of the Society for Ethical Culture. His subject will be "The Problem of Discipline," and he will speak on the meaning of discipline in general, the significance of punishment in character training and in management of children.

A program under the chairmanship of Mrs. Austin Finegan was presented to the members and guests of the Society of New York State Women at its regular monthly meeting last Monday in the College Room of the Hotel Astor. Fourteen new members were introduced. They were: Mrs. H. C. Hoyt, Mrs. P. J. Gantt, Mrs. G. F. Farrell, Miss O'Neill, Mrs. Dominick Henry, Mrs. B. Godney, Mrs. Morris Westergren, Mrs. Alice Herberman, Mrs. Thomas W. Casey, Miss Mary Brown, Mrs. Madge McIntyre, Mrs. Nellie B. Van Slingsland, Mrs. E. V. Jackson, Mrs. George E. Owens and Mrs. James Moran.

Mrs. William Gerry Slade, president of the New York State Society, National Civic Federation, U. S. D. of 1912, will be at home from 3 to 5 Saturday to welcome any member of the state or national society. The officers of the New York State Society assist Mrs. Slade in entertaining at these monthly "at homes."

The next regular meeting of the National California Club will be held at the Waldorf-Astoria Tuesday afternoon. At 2 o'clock a business meeting will be held followed by a social hour from 2:45 to 3:30, when Mrs. Evan Armstrong will have charge of the program and introduce the speakers. Dr. William Frederick Slocum, formerly of Colorado College, the subject to be "The League of Nations," and Miss Rita Leighton, whose subject will be "Americanism," also will speak. Mrs. Slade will be Mrs. Harry Lilly, president of the New York City Federation of Women's Clubs.

A meeting of Le Lyceum Société des Femmes de France was held last Saturday afternoon at the Waldorf. Major Arthur Bliss addressed the club on "La Psychologie de la Guerre."

At the last meeting of the Legislative League Mrs. Thomas Slack, president, talked on "Pending Legislation." Mrs. Slack also discussed the trials of the Socialists in Albany.

Mrs. Stuart, vice-president of the league, discussed the "welfare bills" that are to come before the New York Legislature this session. Dr. Milton Littlefield was the speaker of the afternoon, his subject being "Conditions in the Near East." Dr. Littlefield has recently returned from a trip to the Near East.

The Alexander Hamilton Women's Relief Corps 162, Miss Grace Edwards president, will hold a card party in the Knights of Pythias Temple the evening of Friday, February 20.

The New York City Members' Club will celebrate Founders' Day, Tuesday, February 17, at the Hotel Pennsylvania at 2:30 o'clock.

At the February meeting of the Maine Women's Club of New York, held at the Waldorf-Astoria, a packet was given to celebrate the 100th anniversary of Maine's admittance into the Union. Miss Ella P. Merrill arranged the program and introduced the speakers. Miss Bertha Louise Soule wrote the lines. Mrs. Archibald Shorey was the Herald and Miss Stimson, with Miss Williams and Miss Davis for attendants, was the Spirit of Maine.

Benefit for Navy Club To Be Given This Week

Many Society Women to Take Part in Performance on Friday at Century Theater

One of the events of the week in which society is interested is the benefit performance to be given at the Century Theater on Friday afternoon. The proceeds will help swell the $700,000 fund being raised to endow the new Navy Club for enlisted men, which recently opened at Nos. 13 and 15 East Forty-first Street.

In addition to forty stage stars, who will present love scenes from Broadway's popular plays, many young society women will appear. Members of the younger set will take part in a musical sketch entitled "A Sailor Has a Girl in Every Port."

Special music has been written for the sketch and an exquisite quality of rich, soft material. The color is fast and the serge all-wool.

Storm Serge, 54 in. wide, $2.75 yard Regularly $3.75
This is also a dark shade of navy. It is a strong, closely woven fabric of all-wool that has been sponged and shrunk, and is so desirable for suits and dresses.

In Striking Colors
Novelty Suitings, 54 in. wide, $4.49 yard Regularly $5.49
Charming indeed and carried out in smart weaves of green mixtures, greys and browns—typical of spring and nice for separate skirts and sport clothes.

Wool Velour, 52 to 54 in. wide, $4.98 yard Regularly $5.98
In demand and rightly so—this velvety finished fabric can be had in shades of reindeer, French Blue, Brown, Tan, Taupe, Cadet and Henna.

Two Advance Models Women's Tricotine Suits at $57.50

There has never been a completely satisfactory substitute for fine serge till the beautiful weave of "tricotine" was given the world of clothes.

Probably every great designer of clothes has used Tricotine in one or more of his best models.

$57.50

Among the many Spring models in our Ready-to-wear Salons are the two pictured.

One has the long straight silhouette that maintains its primary place in every woman's wardrobe—the other shows the indication of the accentuated waistline advocated by many style-leaders.

The tailoring of these suits is an asset to be reckoned with. We consistently have the finest tailoring possible. The linings, the finish of button holes and seams—the entire suit and its details are individually passed on before being presented to our public.

Our $57.50 Suits bear out these facts to a marked degree, lined with fine Peau de Cygne and exquisitely made of the best quality Tricotine in Black or Navy.
